Quick reference guide to immigration statuses

Immigration advice is a regulated activity, regulated by the Office of the Immigration Services Commissioner.

It is a criminal offence for people who are not qualified to give immigration advice. The table below is a quick reference to help you understand your immigration status and what it might entitle you to, it should not be used to give people immigration advice. If you are uncertain about your immigration status you should always seek advice from an immigration professional.

Application Fees

Application fees increased in April 2022:

- LLR is £1,048
- ILR is £2,404
- Naturalisation for a child is £1012

In October 2020, the immigration health surcharge was increased to £624 per year, which for a 30 month period of leave is £3120<sup>1</sup>.
